Discussion Questions

- How far from home do I want to go?
- What size of school interests me?
- Which schools appear to provide the best value?
i.e. high-caliber students go there (as evidenced by GPA and test scores) but the price isn't as high as others
- Which private schools appear to offer the best grant opportunities?
- How much does diversity matter to me in a school?
- Which schools offer the most diverse student bodies?
- Based on average GPA and test scores, which schools on this list would I characterize as safe schools, match schools, and stretch schools?
- When weighing all the factors that are important to me, which school or schools on this list rise to the top?
